PREFACE.

This genealogy was begun out of curiosity, to ascertain as far as possible the number of descendants of William and Margaret Thomson, and with no thought of its publication.

Among the many who have kindly furnished material especial mention should be made of Mrs. Isabel Fitts and Mrs. Fanny E. Phelps of East Windsor, Darwin W. Phelps of South Dayton, N. Y., Mrs. Frederick Larder of Sinclairville, N. Y., Miss Emma N. Folsom of Willsboro, N. Y., Mrs. Joseph Moore of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Arthur R. Thompson of Hartford, Conn., who secured nearly all of the data of the Harper branch. Miss Ruth Thompson Sperry's researches as published in Stiles' History of Windsor have afforded a substantial foundation on which to build, and much information has been obtained from the Allen, Pelton, Hooker and Chandler Genealogies. The writer deeply regrets all errors, many of which seemed unavoidable owing to contradictory dates in town and church records, family Bibles, and gravestone inscriptions.

Every descendant known to have married has been given a number, and an asterisk prefixed to a number indicates that additional information concerning the family will be found under that number on some succeeding page. Known instances of war service are mentioned, but such data have not been obtainable in all cases.

This book is dedicated to the Thompson Family Association, in the hope that its readers of the present and coming generations will find it instructive and useful.

Mary A. Elliott,
Walla Walla, Washington.

INTRODUCTION.

The name Thompson, variously spelled, has long been known in England, Scotland, and Ireland. In New England it has been estimated that there are at least twenty or thirty distinct families, and numerous other branches are found in the Southern and Western States.

These genealogical researches are intended to show the lines of descent from William and Margaret Thompson, or more accurately Thomson, who came from Scotland to the Province of Ulster in the North of Ireland about 1716 with their seven sons and two daughters, all of whom were born in Scotland. Their Scottish residence has never been definitely located. A search made in 1908 in three hundred and twenty-five parish records failed to disclose either the early home of the family or the maiden name of Margaret. There are probabilities in favor of Argyleshire as the Scottish environment, and of Coleraine in the County Derry as the stopping-place in Ireland.

After a year's sojourn in Ireland, during which William, the father, died, the date and place of burial being now unknown, Margaret and her nine children sailed for New England about 1718 in a vessel, one of a fleet of five, under the command of Captain Temple. The voyage was long, and starvation was only averted by the providential discovery of the body of a sheep or other domestic animal floating upon the sea.

About 1720 we find the family settled in that part of Windsor, Conn., now known as Melrose, East Windsor, whither came then or later other Scotch families, the Harpers, McKnights, Speirs, Scotts, McKinstrys, and McKinneys. Stiles' History of Windsor says:

"Closely connected with the Thompson family were the families of Harper and Speir. Their farms and their graves adjoined, and it is believed they came in the same ship and from the same country. The family Bible brought by Margaret was accidentally burned, and few records can be found.

"On the Windsor Land Record the earliest mention of the name Thompson is in a deed describing a certain piece of land sold by Capt. Job Ellsworth to William, Samuel, and James, and recorded March 8th, 1730. In an old account book their names are found, dated 1724.

"These Scotch emigrants were called proud and exclusive." They at first married and lived among themselves. The Americans looked askance upon the newcomers, calling them "Irish," and their settlement "Irish Row," terms they bitterly resented.

This state of feeling was due to the enmities then existing between the Scotch and Irish in the North of Ireland. But all misunderstandings with the Americans were gradually overcome as the character and worth of the settlers became known, and it is interesting to note that after no long time the latter were intermarrying with the best New England stock about them. "The study of their genealogy excites admiration," says one observer, speaking of the Thompsons. Their intelligence was shown in selecting the best land in the town. They preëmpted enough land for six large farms, all adjoining, indicating that they were mutually kind, peaceable, and loving. They were active, industrious, temperate, and religious, and lived to a good old age.

The question is often asked, "Why did our ancestors leave Scotland for Ireland?" The answer can only be conjectural. They were probably among the number of those who were encouraged by liberal offers and grants on the part of the English sovereign to take possession of land in the six northern counties of Ireland, which, in the reign of James I, fell to the king by dispossession of the tenants. It is known that in the reign of Charles II and later during the reign of William and Mary there were large accessions to the Scotch Protestant families who had settled upon these lands. The reason why so many of them made a further migration is not far to seek. Macauley says: "On the same soil dwelt two populations, locally intermixed, morally and politically sundered. They sprang from different stocks. They spoke different languages. They had different national characters, as strongly opposed as any two national characters in Europe. There could therefore be little sympathy between them."

We can imagine that these conditions, together with the fact that they could hold their lands in Ireland only by lease from the Crown and not as proprietors in fee, made these Scotch people quick to respond to the suggestion of proceeding to America when favorable reports were received from the Rev. William Boyd, through whom had been sent an Address to Governor Shute of Massachusetts asking from his Excellency "suitable encouragement," and signed by more than two hundred adult men, among whom were nine ministers of the Gospel, and three other graduates of the University of Scotland. This address, with the names of the signers, can be found in the History of Palmer, Mass., together with the statement that a large number of those who signed converted their property into money and embarked in five ships for Boston, where one hundred families arrived August 4, 1718.

In 1720 the ages of the children of William and Margaret Thomson were as follows: William 34, Mariam (undoubtedly Miriam) 31, Samuel 29, John —, James 24, Robert 20, Ruth 16, Hugh —, Joseph 11.

The grave of Margaret may be seen in the cemetery at Ellington, Conn., the original brown stone bearing the following inscription:

> Here Lyes the Body of Mrs. Margaret Tomson
> Who Died Jan ry the 20th A. D. 1752, in the > 87th Year of Her Age.

Near by are the graves of William, the eldest son, and his wife Esther, Samuel and his wife, Mariam, the sister who married Joseph Harper, Joseph, the youngest of Margaret's children, and Margaret, the wife of John.

In the cemetery at Melrose, near Ellington, are the graves of James, his wife Janet Scott, Robert and his wife Rachel, and Ruth.

In the early Ellington records we find Asahel and Mary Thompson with twelve children; in Enfield, Conn., a Thompson family who were the founders of Thompsonville; in Farmington, Conn., Thompsons who settled there in 1750; but there is no trace of kinship with the East Windsor family.

The change in the spelling of the name from Thomson to Thompson has been gradual, but in this family the longer spelling has prevailed in all lines since about 1800.

Extract from a letter written by Ralph Willard Allen (a descendant of Mariam Thompson[2]) Nov. 24, 1888, to John M. Thompson (593), son of James A. Thompson (527):

"Your grandparents, John McKnight Thompson and Sabra Allen, were married in the north front room of the house now occupied by Jabez Samuel Allen, by the Rev. Thomas Potwine, Jan. 23, 1794. The house you now occupy was being built by your grandfather the preceding year, and was ready for occupancy at the time of their marriage, though in an unfinished state. They were a happy, well-matched couple. Your grandfather was well built physically, strictly honest in heart, diligent and industrious in business, genial and social in disposition, and of warm, sincere friendship. He greatly delighted in social intercourse, and a company of friends with John McKnight Thompson could not be dull or uninteresting. His farm was originally very large, but he cultivated it well, and was considered an excellent farmer. No woman possessed greater excellence than Sabra, his wife. In all her relations she showed the best elements of the highest life of womanhood."

During one hundred and twelve years, five generations of their descendants were born in that house. The first birth was a son, Chauncey Thompson, Oct. 24, 1794. The last birth was Margaret Irene Thompson, July 19, 1904, dau. of Howard A. Thompson.

"James Thompson[2], the third son of William and Margaret, was one of the largest tax payers on the east side of the 'Great River.' It is a family tradition that he was a merchant and often voyaged to the old country. For the marriage of each of his daughters he was wont to bring home a handsome brocade silk dress and a number of yards of Irish lace. He married Janet Scott, a Scotch lassie who was here visiting her brother, Robert Scott. She had promised her parents she would return to them. After she had plighted her troth to James Thompson she returned to Scotland to keep her promise 'wi the auld folk,' then crossed the ocean the third time to marry James. She was a most energetic woman. Her husband's will is dated March 23, 1771 (Hartford Probate Office), mentioning his wife, Janet, daughters Elizabeth, Margaret, Mariam, and only son John." —From Stiles' Hist. Windsor, Conn.

797 MIRIAM THOMPSON[3] (James[2], William[1]) b. July 12, 1742; m. at Enfield, Conn., June, 1763, Col. John Harper, b. Boston, Mass., May 31, 1734, son of John and Abigail (Montgomery) Harper. The Harper family had removed from East Windsor, Conn., to Cherry Valley, N. Y., in 1754, at that time a frontier town. In 1771, the Harpers and associates having secured from the Indians by purchase and from the Governor and Council of the Province by grant a tract of 22,000 acres, Col. John Harper, with his wife and several small children, removed to Harpersfield, N. Y., and commenced a survey for a town. The Colonel being called away for a time, his wife supervised the erection of the first house built by white settlers in the community. It was a picturesque location on the north bank of a tributary of the Susquehanna. High wooded ridges faced them across the stream, lesser hills shut them in behind, and four miles to the southeast Mt. Utsayantha, an outpost of the Catskills, 3,200 feet high, dominated the scene.

Upon the outbreak of the Revolution, the Indians of the region sided with the British. In July, 1777, an Indian whom the Colonel had befriended left his sleeping companions by night and warned him that an attack by Tories and Indians was to be made the following day. Col. Harper gave the warning to as many of the settlers as he could reach and then hurried his family toward Schoharie. The Indians burned the village and massacred or took into captivity the scattered settlers who remained.

In this critical period the family had to be divided. The fort at Schoharie, where Col. Harper commanded a band of patriots, sheltered some. Miriam, accompanied no doubt by the younger children, went to Johnstown in Western New York, where she died Sept. 25, 1778. Margaret, the eldest daughter, found refuge with relatives at East Windsor, Conn., until January, 1785, when she returned to Harpersfield.

The History of Delaware County, by Jay Gould, and other historical and biographical works, contain many anecdotes illustrating the bravery and hardihood of this family. It is related that one winter when the cold was unusually severe and the snow deep, the stock of provisions ran dangerously low, but Mrs. Harper concealed the fact as long as possible, hoping that supplies would be sent or game be killed, and well aware of the dangers her husband would face if he realized the situation. At last but one loaf of bread was left and concealment was no longer possible. Col. Harper took this last loaf and divided it among his family, keeping none himself. He then strapped on his snowshoes and set out for Schoharie, distant about thirty miles. Fortunately, he met a rescue party which had left Schoharie the same day with food for the isolated settlement.

For an exciting incident of the war at Schoharie, see Thomas Dunn English's poem "Col. Harper's Charge."

Chandler Cannon's birthplace is given as Shrewsbury, Vt., and that of "Maria" as Coventry, Vt.

APPENDIX

HISTORY OF MEMORIAL WORK

At the reunion of the Thompson Family Association, held at "Millstone," Ellington, Conn., the country residence of Dr. Everett J. McKnight of Hartford, on August 8, 1910, a memorial committee was appointed, consisting of Royal W. Thompson of Windsor, Conn., chairman; Charles A. Thompson of Melrose, Conn., and John T. McKnight of Ellington, Conn., secretary and treasurer.

Prior to this time,—in the fall of 1908,—Miss Emma G. Allen of Hartford, Conn., had taken upon herself the task of having the headstone over the grave of Samuel Thompson, who died February 23, 1782, in the 91st year of his age (son of Margaret), which had broken and fallen apart, suitably repaired at a cost of fifteen dollars.

In the summer of 1911, under the direction of this Memorial Committee, the plot of ground at Ellington, where rests the remains of our early ancestor, Margaret Thompson, and those akin to her, was restored, the headstones marking the graves repaired or reset where necessary, and the whole put in a very attractive condition.

At the reunion of the Association in Ellington, in 1912, the Memorial Committee presented to the Association sketches of proposed treatment of the headstone over the grave of Margaret Thompson, and at that meeting a member of the Association from New York City, Mrs. I. Belle Thompson, widow of Frank Thompson, offered to contribute the estimated cost of this memorial, provided the Association would authorize its erection according to the designs submitted at the meeting. This offer was unanimously accepted, and Mrs. Thompson turned over to the committee said estimated cost, to wit, three hundred dollars.

The contractors agreed to furnish the memorial of the original design at a net price, erected, of three hundred dollars, said memorial to be an arch composed of three stones, two side uprights and a top stone surmounting and enclosing the headstone of our original ancestor, Margaret Thompson, which was reset with the memorial arch erected around it in a solid concrete foundation. The original inscription was intended to be in V-shaped incised sunken letters with a bronze tablet on the back face of the capstone, but the memorial committee thought it worth the additional expense to have the memorial inscription on the front of the capstone in raised letters, and on the upright stones in front, cut in V-shaped incised sunken letters, the names of the children of William and Margaret Thompson together with the year of their birth and death, where such information was obtainable. This added fifty-eight dollars to the costs of the memorial, making a total of three hundred and fifty-eight dollars. This memorial was formally accepted and dedicated by the Association at its biennial meeting held on September 19, 1914. This memorial is constructed of blue Westerly granite; base, five feet four inches long and twelve and one-half inches wide; height over all five feet five inches; with a bronze panel on the back two feet long by one foot wide. The inscription on the capstone of the memorial is

THOMPSON

William Margaret

all in raised letters.

On the upright stones in V-shaped incised sunken letters are the names of the children of William and Margaret, together with the year of their birth and death where obtainable, as follows:

CHILDREN	CHILDREN
William 1686–1763	Robert 1700–1788
Mariam 1689–1772	Ruth 1704–1786
Samuel 1691–1782	Hugh
John	Joseph 1709–1741
James 1696–1776

On the bronze panel appears the following:

their seven sons and two daughters who left Scotland for America, tarrying for a year in the north of Ireland where William, the father, died, Margaret, the mother and her nine children completing the journey and settling in that part of Windsor settlement now known as Ellington in the year 1720, this memorial surmounts and marks the headstone over the grave of our original ancestor in America,
"MARGARET TOMSON."

The work of the Memorial Committee should not stop here. There should be set apart at least five hundred dollars as a trust fund for the permanent care and maintenance of the Thompson plot in the old part of the Ellington Cemetery, and the sacred stones connected therewith, including the memorial we have erected. In this plot are the marked remains of twenty-one descendants of Margaret Thompson, of whom four were her children:

Joseph, who died December 2, 1741, in the 32d year of his age;

William, who died August 3, 1763, in the 77th year of his age;

Mariam, wife of Joseph Harper, who died February 12, 1772, in the 83d year of her age;

Samuel, who died February 23, 1782, in the 91st year of his age.

Of these, so far as the monument records are ascertainable, Joseph was the first child to depart this life, dying at the age of 32, or about 21 years after settling in this section with his mother, brothers and sisters.

There are five graves in this plot of those who married these Thompsons:

Esther, wife of William, who died May 14, 1771, in the 83d year of her age.

Elizabeth, wife of Samuel, who died October 22, 1776, in the 90th year of her age;

Elenor, wife of Samuel, who died January 4, 1850, in the 94th year of her age;

Margaret, wife of William, who died August 7, 1789, in the 21st year of her age;

Elizabeth, wife of James, who died March 18, 1825, in the 86th year of her age;

In the History of Tolland County by R. G. Cole, published in 1888, it is stated:

> "One of the oldest, if not the oldest stone in the Ellington Cemetery marks the spot where lies ye body of Mr. Joseph Thompson, who died December ye 2nd, 1741, in the 32nd year of his age."

It was by the side of his grave that the remains of the immortal Margaret were interred after her death, January 20, 1752, eleven years later, passing away at the ripe age of 87 years, some twenty years after she had settled in this country with her children; thus this Margaret was 55 years of age when she left the beautiful heather of her Scotland.

Just a few steps from this plot lie the remains of three other Thompsons:

Sabra, wife of John, who died March 28, 1858, age 83;

John, who died February 22, 1841, age 73;

Samuel W., son of John, who died March 12, 1811, age 2 months, 25 days.

Over near the back corner of this old part of the Ellington Cemetery are the graves of:

Mahitable, wife of Samuel, who died December 8, 1845, age 79;

Samuel, who died November 28, 1842, age 79 years.

There are other graves of those early Thompsons, descendants of this noble Margaret, whose resting places should be properly marked and maintained in perpetual care.

In the Cemetery at Melrose there are the graves of twenty-one of these early Thompsons, three of whom were Margaret's children, Robert, James and Ruth, and of the descendants of William and Margaret bearing the name of Thompson there are some in the cemeteries in Warehouse Point and Windsorville. The work of the Thompson Family Association should be continued until these early graves, not only at Ellington, but at Melrose and Warehouse Point and Windsorville, or wheresoever found, have been properly restored and funds provided for their perpetual care and maintenance.

THE THOMPSON FAMILY ASSOCIATION

January 1, 1915.

The Thompson Family Association.

At a small family gathering in the home of Mr. John Thompson in Ellington in August 1902, the desirability of a Thompson Reunion was suggested. The only obstacle to such an occasion was the finding of a suitable place in which to meet, and it seemed to all, after a prolonged discussion, that the project must be unwillingly given up;—but this consultation happily resulted in an invitation to the descendants of William and Margaret Thomson from Mr. and Mrs. E. Franklin Thompson to meet at their home in East Windsor, Conn., October 2, 1902. It proved a most delightful occasion to over two hundred people who came together on the spacious, well-shaded lawn, where all needed provision had been made for their comfort. There were many surprising revelations of relationship among those who had spent their lives in East Windsor attending the same schools and church. All could that day greet each other as cousins. The organization was there formed of the Thompson Family Association. The officers elected were: President: Col. Charles E. Thompson, Hartford, Conn.; Vice President: Frank A. Thompson, Hartford, Conn.; Secretary and Treasurer: Mrs. Mary A. Elliott, Walla Walla, Wash.

It was proposed to meet once in two years. At each of the seven reunions that have been held, after a social hour and dinner together, there has been a programme of singing, prayer, reports, addresses, letters and greetings from absent members. At each of the four reunions in Ellington, all went to the cemetery near, where impressive services were held at the grave of the pioneer mother, Margaret Thomson, and bright flowers were strewn by the company upon the grave.

The second reunion, 1904, was again held at the home of E. Franklin Thompson. The third, 1906, at the home of Mrs. D. N. Kimball, Ellington, Conn. The fourth, 1908, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Ellington. The fifth, 1910, at "Millstone," the summer home of Dr. Everett J. McKnight, near Ellington. The sixth, 1912, and seventh, 1914, were at the Congregational Church, since destroyed by fire, in Elling-ton. At each reunion there has been an attendance of two hundred or more. Invitations have been sent to descendants of the original Thompson Family throughout the United States,—also to Japan, China, and the Philippines. The New England States, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia, Illinois, Missouri, California and Washington have been represented at the Reunions. The success of these gatherings has been largely due to the kind helpfulness and labor of those families at whose homes they have been held and the generous hospitality shown in granting the use, on two occasions, of the Ellington Church.
